

Penn State-Lehigh Valley Writing Project

presents a

Saturday Seminar

– Saturday, November 7, 2009 –
9 AM - Noon

Corporate Learning Center, Bethlehem, PA

- What is the Saturday Seminar?

A bite-sized slice of Summer Institute. That is to say a bit of writing, demonstration lesson by a Lehigh Valley Writing Project Fellow and classroom teacher focusing on best practices in the teaching of writing, followed by discussion, and – of course – a bit more writing. Speaking of bite-sized, light refreshments will be provided.

- Who should come?

K-college educators in all subject areas who would like to learn more about using writing as a tool for teaching. This includes:

- Participants from previous Summer Institutes who'd like to reconnect with other Writing Project Fellows.
- People who have always thought about participating in the Summer Institute, but for one reason or another, have not yet done so.
- People who'd like to get a taste of the 6-credit Summer Institute and The Lehigh Valley Writing Project.
- Administrators who would like to experience the Lehigh Valley Writing Project in action.

- What is the cost?

The Saturday Seminar costs $10 per individual and $15 for a participant and a friend.
Please see attached registration form.
